

2022-2023 CCHS Dress Code

Coastal Christian High School's dress code is intended to promote modesty resulting in an atmosphere that limits distractions and enhances learning.

The following guidelines must be followed during the school day hours of 8:25 - 3:30.

TOPS

- CCHS-issued t-shirts are encouraged and permitted at any time on campus.
- All shirts must have sleeves and a collar unless it is a CCHS-issued t-shirt.
- Collared shirts with sleeves are permitted in any color or pattern but cannot be sheer or "see-through."
- Button-up shirts must have sleeves and a collar and button up high enough to cover undergarments such as camisoles.
- Crew-neck sweatshirts, crew-neck sweaters, hoodies, and jackets are permitted OVER CCHS-issued t-shirts, but must have necklines that cover the t-shirt underneath.
- Tops must be long enough to cover midriffs even when arms are raised.
- Tops may NOT display inappropriate wording or graphics.
- Clothing of any type promoting a political agenda or activism is NOT permitted on campus.
- SENIORS ONLY may wear crew-neck t-shirts, jackets, and sweaters/hoodies bearing the logo of the colleges or universities from which they have received an official letter of acceptance.

BOTTOMS

- Pants may be any color or pattern but must NOT have rips or tears higher than five inches above the knee.
- All shorts, male or female, must have an inseam that measures at least five inches.
- Pants and shorts should have a zipper and button or snap closure.
- Athletic shorts, athletic pants, bathing suits, board short style bathing suits, and leggings are NOT permitted in the building during the school day.
- PE and weight training classes will have designated clothing to be changed into and worn only during class and not throughout the school building.

DRESSES/SKIRTS

- Maxi-length dresses and skirts are the only skirt length permitted during the school day.
- Maxi-dresses must have a collar and sleeve built into the dress and cover undergarments, including camisoles and tank tops.
- Rompers are NOT permitted during the school day.

FOOTWEAR

- Any type of footwear is permitted except for bedroom slippers.

HATS/HOODS

- No hats are permitted during the school day inside the building.
- Hoods on jackets and hoodies may NOT be up and covering a student's head.

The CCHS administration reserves the right to send any student home to change his or her clothing, jewelry, hairstyle, etc. if the administration deems it to be a distraction, immodest, or outside of the above guidelines. Disregarding these guidelines may result in consequences deemed appropriate by the administration.
